GENERAL AGENTS GO ON TRIP OVER ROAD

Dr. Douglas Says Southwestern Will Build to Tucson and Phoenix.

Accompanied by traffic manager A. N. Brown, the general agents of the Southwestern system, left Saturday morning for a trip over the eastern division of the system. The sessions of the general agents closed Friday evening. Dr. James Douglas, president of the Phelps-Dodge, attended the meeting, as did Walter Douglas, his son. The meeting was held for the purpose of discussing the general business of the traffic department and was held at the Southwestern office building.

Dr. Douglas entertained the officials at luncheon while they were here. The doctor confirmed the information that the Southwestern will build to Tucson and Phoenix, but said he knew nothing about an extension to the coast. However, it is known that on reaching Phoenix, the road will there have Santa Fe connection as well as S. P. and will be in position to get much better Pacific coast arrangements. The road is now asking for terminals in Tucson and it is the intention to build on to Phoenix from Tucson.

FADED SUNBONNET IN BELL'S TRIAL

Pathetic Incident When Bell Produces Memento of Baby and Breaks Down.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 28.—Throats choked and eyes were moistened in judge Willis's court today at the sight of a little, old sunbonnet of faded blue. It was once worn by the child of Frank M. Bell, whose life is at stake for the killing of O. P. Widaman, the lawyer, who, Bell claims, robbed him of his fortune, despoiled his home and hounded him for months after he was bereft of everything in life he treasured.

Bell Weeps; Wife Yawns.
When the broken man yielded from his bosom pocket this reminder of the days of domestic felicity, before Widaman, according to his story, had entered and blackened his life, his frame was convulsed with sobs and his head was bowed with grief. His wife, who sat in court, yawned and smiled. One other memento of the old days Bell has preserved throughout the troubles of his tempestuous career since he was estranged from his family. That is a letter which his wife wrote from Los Angeles to his mother in El Paso in the spring of 1907, indicating the manner of man she then regarded him.

His Wife's Opinion.
The letter concluded: "He is such a good man, mother. He does not drink, or smoke, or swear or do or say any of those vices, and I think a man ought to live and teach others the same, when they are that way. I know it. I will tell you if Jack were ever taken from me, for I do all I can to make our home simply happy and bright, by bringing new and pure thoughts to all, with the beautiful prayers you sent and some I have lately received. Write soon. Devotedly, 'Brownie'."

The Prosecution's Plan.
At the adjournment of court at noon today there was in circulation an unconfirmed rumor about the corridors that the prosecution will essay to show that this letter, mailed shortly after Bell had written, was written by Mrs. Bell at the dictation of her husband for the purpose of obtaining money from his mother, who was in comfortable circumstances. Mrs. Bell's pet name for her husband was "Jack" and she invariably signed as "Brownie" the letters she wrote his mother.

Mother On Stand.
The incident interrupted the examination for the defense of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Bell, the defendant's mother, who identified several letters which she had received from Mrs. Frank M. Bell.

See the fine line of spring suitings at Gray's. He guarantees a perfect fit and perfect satisfaction.

KARL KIRCHNER, A PIONEER, IS DEAD

Carl Kirchner, a resident of El Paso for the past 16 years, died at his home, 1801 Wyoming street, at 6 o'clock this morning after an illness of several days, death caused by pneumonia, a local pneumonia, which is similar to pneumonia.

Mr. Kirchner was born in Bee county, near Beeville, Tex., November 19, 1851, and was engaged in the cattle business for several years. He then entered the state ranger service and served as sergeant under Capt. Jones for several years.

About 16 years ago he retired from the service and opened the Silver King saloon in El Paso, which he conducted for about six years, disposing of it to Jim Taylor, a Mexican mining man. He then became agent for the San Antonio Brewing association and the Houston Ice and Bottling company, and was president and treasurer of the Magnolia Bottling works. He had been quite successful in a business way and had accumulated considerable property.

He is survived by his widow and an 11-year-old son, Forest, and two brothers, W. B. and Rufus R. Kirchner, cattle-men of Barksdale, Tex.

The funeral will be held from the family home, Saturday afternoon, and will proceed to the church of the Immaculate Conception, where services will be held at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in Concordia Catholic cemetery.

MISS TRUST PEARSON.
Miss Trust Pearson, a bookkeeper, who resided with her mother, Mrs. E. F. Pearson, at 513 North Oregon street, died early Saturday morning at the eruptive hospital. She had been ill since January 15, and was removed to the hospital on January 19. Interment was in the Masonic plot at Concordia.

VIRGINIO ALVARADO.
An inquest was held Friday afternoon by justice H. F. Stacy over the body of Virginio Alvarado, a 15-year-old son of Pedro Alvarado and wife, living at 1216 South Oregon street. Death was caused by inanition.

MRS. MARY C. BISBEE.
Mrs. Mary C. Bisbee, who had resided at 911 North El Paso street for the past eight years, died there Friday after being confined to her home for a short time by an attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Bisbee was born October 4, 1844. She is survived by two daughters, one a resident of Denver and the other, Miss Susan Bisbee, with whom she made her home.

The funeral was held from the residence Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Henry Easter conducting the services. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery.

Westcott to the Women's club of El Paso, was issued from the 41st district court late Friday afternoon by judge Walhall. The petitioners in the case are W. H. Burges, W. R. Brown and Winchester Cooley, trustees of the club. Action was precipitated by the arrival in El Paso of Mr. Wortham, a nephew of Miss Westcott, who was sent from Houston by the estate's executor, to seek Miss Westcott's personal effects and household furnishings, and was engaged in that work when the notice of injunction was served on him. He disclaims any intention of attempting to take possession of the property and states the whole affair is a misunderstanding.
